In Val d'isère, in the popular and unspoiled district of La Daille is the Piou. An authentic apartment with an ideal location for practicing winter sports and for spending holidays with the family. Piou It offers an ideal location, allowing access to and from the slopes directly from the residence and access to the shops and restaurants of the center in a few minutes.

This bright 87m apartment can comfortably accommodate 6 people in three bedrooms, two of which are doubles and a child with two bunk beds. It has an open plan kitchen and a living room with wonderful mountain views. Cozy and modern, it is the ideal place for good moments of sharing.

Piou offers quick access to one of the largest ski areas in the world while being anchored in the traditional charm of the village of Val d'isère. The decoration of the apartment is authentic and contemporary. The comfortable and refined furniture, the dark wood floor and the modern paintings sit alongside the outdoor decor of nature, through the bay windows that encircle the living space.
