Located a few steps from the hotel, this complex of chalets with 19 rooms is distinguished by its wood and stone decor.

Just a stone's throw from the slopes, with privileged access to the largest ski area in the world, the chalets offer a panoramic view of the snow-covered summit of the Saulire with their warm and intimate atmosphere.

Each corner of these real cocoons, has been meticulously imagined and designed for an intimate gathering with family or friends.

Just like at home, the crackling fire in the fireplace invites you to share moments, where history is written and lived.
